QUAVER WON AT TWENTY TO ONE.

Beat Charlie O'Brien a Length in Six Furlongs Handicap at Little Rock.

OTHER RACES WITHOUT CLASS.

Belle of the Glen, Backed Down From Sixes to Even Money, Won the First Race by Twelve Lengths.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Little Rock, Ark., March 26.—There was a larger attendance at Clinton Park Tuesday than there was at the opening day, although there was no special feature on the programme.

Quaver furnished the surprise of the day by winning the six furlongs handicap with odds of 20 to 1 about her. As Charlie O'Brien and Chappqua were at short prices, the public backed the outsider and the books lost heavily by the result.

The track was fast and the weather fine and the winners are not hard to find. Starter Bruen was in fine form and sent the fields away on even terms, with but little delay.

Belle of the Glen, the winner of the first race, was the medium of a killing. She was backed from 6 to 1 to even money, and she made her first long leap. She opened up a gap in the first quarter, and increased her lead the farther she went, and passed the judges twelve lengths before Eva Wilson, a 10-to-1 chance.

Seven started in the 2-year-old race of half a mile, but the race was always between Debutante and Tambourine, who fought it out, and Debutante won by half a length. Ben Hullum was crowding the contest to the end, but was only beaten by a head for the place.

Margie Young broke out of the maiden class in the six furlongs race for 2-year-olds and upward which had never won a race. She made her own running and won by two lengths, while Active, the favorite, finished second.

Cherub annexed the mile and a sixteenth after a drive with Dan the Filander, who took the six furlongs selling by half a length from Alf W.
